Ipswich Chamber Music Society (ICMS) was formed in 1925 by Martin Slater and Hendrik Spruytenburg to bring to Ipswich live performances of the greatest chamber music at reasonable prices. In recent years we have welcomed many first-class groups, British and from overseas, including the Griller, Amadeus, Janacek, Lindsay, Kodaly, Endellion and Vanbrugh Quartets and the Nash Ensemble.

ICMS is one of the oldest chamber music societies in the country and has an uninterrupted record of concert-giving, having continued to put on concerts even throughout the war years, 1939-45.

We try to keep our subscription rates as low as possible. We are very grateful for the generous support of members who upgrade their subscription to Friend or who sponsor a particular concert. This enables us to maintain the very high quality of our concerts by engaging visiting artists of international repute.
